We are looking for you to work in New Delhi / India:

Inclusion Coordinator (m/f/d)
as Integrated Expert

We are looking for you:
The Christoffel Blindenmission (CBM) India requires your expertise to promote the inclusion of people living with disabilities in business and administration activities. CBM is an international development organisation for people living with disabilities and is a recognised partner of the World Health Organization. The employment of people living with disabilities in the private sector is still in its infancy in India. Although the appropriate legal provisions exist, the actual inclusion of people living with disabilities in vocational training and employment requires further targeted measures. In addition to promoting private sector partnerships, this also includes the exchange of knowledge and experiences with countries that already have good practice examples in the field of inclusion.

Your tasks will involve:

- Identifying employment prospects for people living with disabilities
- Investigating company interests regarding inclusion under consideration of innovative financing models
- Cooperating with the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) and GIZ
- Networking with bilateral and multilateral donors and non-governmental organisation
- Developing pilot project
- Supporting German development cooperation with the implementation of new inclusion strategies

Your profile:

- University degree in social sciences, social pedagogy or a similar field of study appropriate for the tasks
- Several years of professional experience in the field of inclusion in government organisations or companies
- Experience in implementing concepts for inclusion, gender and anti-discrimination
- Development cooperation and regional experience is an advantage
- Fluent business English

What we offer:

- Varied work with individual responsibility in an international field
- Teamwork with other development cooperation organisations
- Professional preparation for overseas deployment
- Placement to a local employer as an Integrated Expert for an initial period of two years - an extension is possible
- Attractive monthly allowances as well as a local salary and social benefits

Note: The job offer is current, there is no deadline for applications.
